

She's like me

Neues Gedicht, allerdings auf Englisch

Von MistressOfDeath

She's like me

She's like me

The sky is red
I'm standing here
People couldn't see me

An angel
Alone in the dark
People couldn't see her

She's so pretty
I see her face
Her soul

She's alone
Like me

Alone in the rain
Alone in her life
Lost in her feelings
Lost in the dark
She's all alone
Broken inside

She's protecting the people
But nobody protect her
By her hidden feelings

She's like the wind
She's like me
She's like the light
Like the light of a rising sun
She comes over and over again
