

You

Von anisel

you came into my life
it was wonderful
this moment i will never forget.
you were very important for me.
with you could i cuddled
in your arms i felt home
your kisses gave my power
you showed me your lovely side.
now you go away, far away from me that day i will never forget the day you stole my heart

you took me away from the world.
the world where are you.
the health and whole world for me.
the world we lived together.

now it's dark around me.
i felt nothing, only a pain
where my heart was, now it is only a deep dark hole.

It hurt me so.
But you, my friend, don't see my pain.
The pain I will never forget, when i remember me at you.
