Kapitel 4: Back to the beginning

I'm running. I lost my orientation a long time ago. My breath goes unregular and my legs are hurting. I don't know how long I can run on. Then suddenly I stop. I turn around shocked. One time, two times. Yes, it's true. "DAMN IT!" Screaming I fell to the ground and smash my fists into the ground. More and more times I hit the floor. I don't really feel the pain in my arms. It's unimportant. I'm back at the beginning. I was running in a circle. I can't believe it. "Where are you? Answer me!" My hands are now bleeding. I stop. I must find the others. Why do I hurt myself? I'm so damn stupid. Now, I really feel the pain. I must stop. If I want to rescue them, I must not get hurt before. I need my howl power. Standing up, I start running again. "I am coming!"

Sorry that this Chapter is so short, but I want to take Luffys thoughts in it. But I will make it short, because I think it is boring for you.

Hope you like it. see you in the next (longer) chapter!
