

My name is DEATH

Von fanmuhr

A voice in the darkness,
your comrade isn't behind you, you have a strange feeling about that,
a sentiment,
a habit,
it is strange,
you wonder,
did you ever have had a comrade?
I don't think so!
you're alone,
loneliness since the time has started,
you're not alone as you think you were alone.
I am with you,
I am everybody's friend...
...when you end your life
I am there,
don't be scared,
I can wait,
I have all time I need,
please, be calm,
stay at the ground,
look around you,
everybody is looking at you,
these eyes,
they hate you,
everyone hates you,
there is only one way to escape from this situation,
clarify everything before you escape, there is a gun in your hand,
what will you do?
remember,
the gun is your only friend,
put the gun to your head,
fire!
squeeze your brain out!
come to me!

no, what did you do?
take the gun!
remember...
you're alone,
you have no friend,
everyone hates you,
think about it,
I am always near you,
you can't escape from me,
I am watching,
soon, you will be with me,
I have time,
if you won't kill yourself I will do!
I have this might,
what do you think?
who am I?
what do you think?
who could I be?
a freind or a foe,
it's up to you...
the better question would be...
WHAT am I?
